GANS TRIMS BOER UMHOLTZ

(By Associated Press.)
San Francisco, May 15.—Joe Gans, the light-weight champion, added another victory to his long string last night by defeating Rudolph Umholtz, the rugged Boer from South Africa, in the eleventh round. The fight was Gans' all the way through. He systematically beat down Umholtz and the referee interfered in the eleventh round as Umholtz was then practically knocked out.

Although Gans had the fight safe at all stages, he had no easy time in solving the awkward defense of Umholtz and in overcoming his natural stamina.

The first knockdown occurred in the fourth round, Gans whipping in a terrible left uppercut to a point of the chin. Umholtz got up promptly and came back full of fight and although willing at all times to make it and never afraid of the clever Gans, his wild efforts were mostly unavailing.

In the seventh round Gans knocked Umholtz down with a right uppercut to the chin, and one of the latter's seconds, losing his head, tossed a towel into the ring and quickly crawled through the ropes.

Umholtz got up promptly and made a wicked attempt to strike his opponent, who quickly crashed back outside the ropes and the fight went on.

In the ninth Gans sent Joe Boer to the floor again, and he got up in a daze and unsteady. The unusual combat was prolonged into the eleventh round when with short arm jabs Gans sent the Boer down with wicked accuracy to the chin. Umholtz got up completely blinded and unable to see his opponent. Gans seeing the condition of Umholtz, humanely stood aside and Referee Welch stepped in and gave the decision to the champion.

At the end of the first round Gans had a slight lead, having partially closed the Boer's left eye with a right hook. In the second round Umholtz had slightly the better of it. His right caught Gans on the jaw as the latter was coming in.

The third round was a bit in favor of Umholtz, who landed some good punches.

The fourth round was Gans'. He floored Umholtz with a left uppercut and the Boer was down for the count of five.

In the fifth Gans had solved the Boer's style of fighting and easily held him, led to the face.

In the sixth the Boer fought back strongly, and did not appear to be in the least distressed. It was Gans' round.

At the end of the seventh, Gans had a big lead and it looked at this stage as if it would be easy sailing, although the Boer seemed not to have weakened greatly.

TO PURGE UNIVERSITY MORALS

High Browed Professors Charged With Card-Playing, Dancing, Cigarette-Smoking, Etc.

Special to Daily Leader.

Norman, Okla., May 15.—Morality at the state university is not gauged at the standard held ideal by members of the board of regents, and a "house cleaning" is promised as a result of the recent investigation made by a special committee of the board.

Card playing, dancing, cigarette smoking and other allegedly immoral practices are charged against some of the professors in a letter written to a member of the board by the Rev. R. E. L. Morgan, pastor of the St. R. church, south, at Norman.

"A damage suit will follow unless Morgan retracts those statements," said Lawyer Dudley, in whose possession the letter had been placed by the accused professors.

"Let them crack their whip," said Ben Williams, a lawyer, whom Morgan has consulted.

The letter was addressed to Dr. N. L. Linebaugh, of McAlester, a member of the investigating committee, and is claimed to have been found at the Arlino hotel.

"It's a lie," said Dr. Linebaugh. "The letter was never separated in that room from any other papers. I believe it was hypochondriacal from the president's office, where some other papers of late were left after the investigation."

The letter is alleged to have been found in the room at the hotel occupied by Dr. Linebaugh during the recent investigation of university conditions here by a committee of the board of regents, consisting of Dr. Linebaugh, Lee Cruise, of Ardmore, and Judge C. J. Pratt, of Oklahoma City.

The letter was a reply to an inquiry made by Dr. Linebaugh relative to the moral condition of the university, and was the foundation of a critical inquiry by the committee of regents in executive session in the office of President Boyd Tuesday and Wednesday.

There, it is alleged, the professors, one by one, were given to understand that dancing, card playing and other practices detrimental to the moral advancement of youth should be discontinued.

The professors are included in the charge preferred by the Rev. Mr. Morgan and two are commended for their moral and educational qualifications. The letter was delivered to Dr. Linebaugh, who turned it over to Morgan & Dudley, a law firm. It is declared that unless Morgan retracts his statements suit for damages will be instituted. Morgan, however, refuses to retract and has engaged the services of an attorney, Ben L. Williams, in
